STETSON SWAMPS ROLLINS--43-0

SECOND GAME GOES TO STETSON--43-0.

Rollins Completely Outclassed.

Smothering the Rollins offensive and carrying the ball forward at will, the gridiron warriors of the Green and White again overwhelmed the Winter Park aggregation Saturday, this time to the score of 43-0. The first touchdown for Stetson was gained in the first half-minute of play, and after that the Stetson eleven continued to score with easy regularity. A peculiar feature of the game was the fact that at one time Coach Hollander had his entire line-up of scrubs in the field, and yet the Rollins boys only twice succeeded in making their downs. The field was dry and fast, enabling the speedy Stetson backfield to show up to great advantage. The game as a whole was too one-sided to be called a good game, but the Rollins squad fought gamely, and the play was hard and clean.

The game by Quarters:

Bailey Punted the Ball.

First Quarter.

Rollins lost the toss and kicked, Hodgden returning forty yards. On the first play Gee passed to Bailey without signals, and Bailey galloped thru the dumfounded Rollins defense for the touchdown. Gross kicked goal.

Gross kicked the ball over the goal on the kick off. Allen recovered; this should have been a touchdown for Stetson, but the referee put the ball in play on the twenty yard line. Rollins fumbled. Gross bucked the line for ten yards, White for five. Stetson fumbled five yards from goal. Rollins could not gain, and punted to mid-field. Bailey made seven yards, Gross fourteen thru the line. Bailey broke thru for twenty. Allen gained ten on a pass. Bailey carried the pigskin for the touchdown. No goal kicked.

Gross kicked off to Rollins thirty yard line. Rollins was forced to kick, Stetson returning the ball all the way. Bailey went round

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. has had some very interesting and attractive meetings this year, which have been held in the Y. W. C. A. rooms in the library. Miss Amy Harrington had charge of the last meeting. The subject was, "Friendship," which was very helpful to those present and likewise greatly enjoyed.

The attendance at the regular meetings has been splendid and we appreciate the interest that the new girls are showing in this Association.

Several interesting features have been planned for Thanksgiving and Christmas, which will be announced later, so girls be wide awake and co-operate with us so that we may have splendid results.

We invite all girls to attend the Y. W. C. A. meetings which are held every Thursday at 3:15 in the Library.

GREEN ROOM CLUB.

Friday Evening, 8 O'clock, Nov. 24.

Friday evening, eight o'clock, November 24th. Yes, that's the date? What date? Why, the date of the Green Room Club plays, of course. Where? In the University Auditorium as always. Are you going? I should say so. So are all of us.

The curtain rises at eight o'clock sharp, and the house will be crowded. Every one knows the Green Room Club and the night of their performance is always looked forward to by the students, townspeople and tourists every year with the greatest expectancy and pleasure.

Three one-act comedies with lots of laughter and fun in store for everybody. The price of admission is fifty cents for all.

The music for this occasion will be furnished by the Stetson Orchestra which is composed of the following gentlemen: Messrs. Anthony Bates, Lew Barstow, Harry Katz, Noble Miller, Leffie Carleton, Harry Limpus, and James Gross.

The Green Room Club is a students' organization and we owe it to our college to support it. We do not owe it, but we always pay this debt, and as a result we are always the gainers.

DON'T FORGET

The Date—Friday Evening, November 24th.

The Place—University Auditorium.

The Time—Eight O'clock, Evening.

The Admission—Fifty Cents.

ALPHA PHI DELTA FRATERNITY.

The Alpha Phi Delta girls have secured the room which was formerly used by the Historical Society. The fraternity girls have had the room cleaned and are furnishing it appropriately for themselves. In a short time they will have an attractive room in which they will hold their regular meetings. The fraternity is showing out strong and it is hoped that another national chapter will soon be established.

EUSOPHIAN LITERARY SOCIETY.

The regular meeting of the Eusophian Literary Society was held Friday, Nov. 17, in the Carnegie Library. The meeting was called to order by the President, Mamie Haynes. After the reading of the minutes of last meeting, the following program was given:

1. Life of Sidney Lanier—Myrtle Barb.
2. Chief Characteristics of Lanier's Poetry—Edna Hefner.
3. Extemporaneous—Lillian Wells.
4. Reading from Lanier—Mary Adams.
5. Vocal Solo—Celestine Futch.
6. Parliamentary Practice—Olga Bowen.

The Parliamentary Practice was a very interesting feature during the meeting. At this time the Freshman Girls were greatly humiliated because they were required to sit at the feet of the haughty Sophomores. But at the close of the Parliamentary Practice the benighted Freshmen were allowed to take their customary places.

Helen Ake is to be complimented for her splendid work, which in a way accounts for the good at-

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Interesting Meeting.

The regular weekly meeting of the Association was held last Thursday evening with a good number of fellows in attendance.

The subject for the occasion was "College Friendships." Mr. Roy Amidon and Mr. John Zeigler spoke upon the subject in an able and intensely interesting manner. This was the first meeting this year in which student leaders were used, and the unqualified success of the meeting goes to show that men are being trained in the Association to carry on its work effectively.

After the devotional meeting a short business meeting was held. A definite program of work was outlined for carrying on the work of the Association in a larger and more effective way.

The resignation of Mr. Rudolph Peterson as President of the Prohibition Association was accepted, and, thereupon, the Association elected Mr. Henry Lofquist to the office just made vacant.

VARSITY CLUB

Hold Tryout.

The Varsity Club met at the usual time Friday night, with a large number in attendance. Mr. Zeigler, as chairman of the committee, appointed to confer with the Kent Club, relative to the debate for the cup, made his report and this report was accepted by the Club.

The program of the evening consisted of a tryout for the debate to be held at the open meeting, and was on the following subject: Resolved that an indecisive victory would be more conducive to permanent peace than a decisive one. The speakers were allowed five minutes each and the following men tried out:

Negative—Murray, LeMay, Shufin.

Affirmative—Roebuck, Leisher, Smith, Zeigler.

By a vote of the society Zeigler, LeMay, Roebuck and Smith were chosen as the winners and will represent the society in the debate at the open meeting.

The tryout for the Oration, to be given at this meeting were then held, the following men taking part: Pickard, Day, Northrup, Peterson, and Mr. Day was the winner in this tryout.

DER DEUTSCHE VEREIN

At the regular meeting of Der Deutsche Verein the following program was rendered:

- Song.
German Current Events—Mr. Biers.
History of the Hohenzollerns—Mr. Schieswohl.
Song.
Heinrich Heine as a Man—Miss Sarvin.
German poem with translation—Miss Esch.
Songs.

"LE CERCLE FRANCAIS"

Strong Society Still Growing.

"Le Cercle Francais" met on Tuesday evening, November 14. The attendance was exceedingly large for a rainy evening. After the roll call a short program was rendered. The society is growing in membership, and its meetings are very interesting. If you are taking French, or have taken it, come and join the society Tuesday evening, November 27.

KENT LAW CLUB

Much Enthusiasm Shown.

The Kent Law Club had one of the most interesting and busy meetings last Friday night in their room in Science Hall. After the meeting was called to order by the president, Mr. Harris as the chairman of a committee of three to consult the Varsity Club on the debate for the prize cup reported that an agreement had been reached. Both sides are to choose three men for the cup debate and a probable schedule of time agreed upon to give first speaker in the debate fifteen minutes and the rest of the debaters twelve minutes with five minutes rebuttal. It is hoped to have a two hour program. March was the time mentioned for the debate

ATHLETIC MEETING.

Basketball Discussed.

On Tuesday afternoon a meeting of the students was held in the Cummings Gym to discuss several matters relating to athletics in Basket Ball and Baseball. Coach Hollander spoke to the students and told them that Basketball will probably start after Thanksgiving and for all those desiring to make the team to come equipped with shoes, etc. Mr. Peterson, the basketball manager, then informed the meeting that he had a schedule nearly arranged and would make it public at the first possible date. Mr. Browning of the baseball team then said a few words for the students to work up enthusiasm and start baseball.

Only a small number of the students were present. All men desiring to make the team for basketball should see the Coach or Manager Peterson at once and get instructions.

by the students of John B. Stetson University.

Contributions from students are earnestly solicited.

Alumni are urged to write the editor, advising us as to where they are and what they are doing.

All contributions should be typewritten, on one side of paper only.

Address all articles intended for publication to the business manager.

The earnest manner and the efforts displayed by the literary societies of the school should be worthy of consideration by all students. The societies request attendance from all students and welcome them. With the inter-society debates which are held annually at the school interest should run high for every student to join one of the several good "lits" on the campus.

Don't let it enter your mind that because several issues of the paper have come out that paper has become cheap for it has not. Your subscriptions are earnestly solicited and this paper's columns are open to you at all times. Hand a dollar to the Business Manager instead of going to the movies for a couple of nights. The movies will move without your money but printers won't work without remuneration. Don't forget it. Just one dollar. "Come across."

The winter visitors are beginning to arrive in DeLand and The Collegiate extends to them a welcome from all the students. Many desire to see the different departments and buildings of the schools. Every student should take pride in showing our visitors about. We hope that courtesy and information will be given to all inquiries from the visitors.

Rollins has been conquered for the second time but the observer of the last game that Stetson had with Rollins could readily see that our men need training. Remember that Southern is not beaten as yet and each man should try as hard as possible to be in the best shape he can be for that game. A defeat of two years ago remains to be blotted from the records of Stetson's football history and constant training and application to the work in hand is the basis of good team work. Southern will meet her old rival resolved to defeat her again and the Stetson men do not intend to repeat again the defeat of two years ago. Down into it, fellows, and get ready to "clean up" at the big game.

To those who look forward to Thanksgiving as the day of all days when reunion of family and friendships are made, the Collegiate extends its best wishes.

On Tuesday a meeting was held for the students interested in athletics in Cummings Gym. The manner in which these meetings are attended by only a few of the students is disheartening. Students have enough loyalty to come out and see what is going to be done in basketball and baseball. Make it your duty to attend these meetings. They are for you and deserve your support. Let's have a good crowd out to the next one, rain or shine.

GIRLS BASKET BALL.

Last week the young ladies were fortunate in having Coach Hollander out to help them in the rudiments of basket ball as played by Intercollegiate Men's Rules. For about an half hour Mr. Hollander kept the young ladies hard at work on the first principles and on several signal plays of the boy's game. As a result the team is greatly improved over the previous work and also in the understanding of the game.

It was learned Saturday that Rollins College basket ball team of girls had accepted the Stetson challenge and had turned the acceptance over to the faculty committee for an O. K. before sending to the Stetson girls. But as the Rollins young ladies have not had intercollegiate games in the past several years the said O. K. was withheld until further developments.

The Stetson team is trying at present to get the young ladies of Rollins to play here in DeLand on the night of November 30th., viz., Thanksgiving. We have had no answer to our last letter in regard to this date but are in the highest hopes that the game will be played under the girl's rules.

This much we can say. The Rollins team wishes to play Stetson, but is unable to answer positively on account of the above mentioned reason. Nevertheless we are pulling for that Thanksgiving game.

Citrus High School, of Inverness, Fla., has accepted the Stetson challenge, as has the Ruskin College team. Leesburg and Ocala have been written to and if these two games can be signed the trip to Inverness will be assured.

Bartow, (Summerlin Institute), writes that they will also play Stetson under certain terms. Palatka has not answered positively as to the game here on December 8th. We hope to sign this game also.

Now comes the old saying: "Have the young ladies of the University paid their athletic dues? We cannot play games here unless we have balls to play with, suits to play in, money for the advance advertising, etc., etc. See Mildred Watts and pay your dues. The team wants to give you games. Do you want games?"

Miss Watts will take any dues at any time.

Contributed by Stetson Student.

A marshmallow toast was given by the members of the Y. W. C. A. in the back parlors of Chaudoin last Wednesday evening. The girls gathered around the big fireplace made a very inviting picture indeed, and there was more than one masculine heart just the least bit envious, as the boys passed by, on their way out of the dining hall.

Alice Steed says she doesn't like Kelly with a moustache on even if he did make a bet against Wilson.

One of the professors wondered what the mysterious remark made by one of the Freshies meant when she said, "Doesn't Helen Ake make the best looking man."

POLITICAL POT BOILING.

A big political meeting was held on the steps of South Conrad Hall on Saturday after dinner when Mr. W. J. Melton being chairman introduced for the pleasure of those present Mr. Forsyth Caro who outlined and defended the platform of Mr. Wilson. Then Mr. Ramondo was introduced as the Republican candidate representing the policies of Mr. Hughes. Every one had a good time but the candidates who lost themselves in eloquence and it took a half hour of good talking to convince them that they were not really the candidates for president. Such will be rats.

Mr. Gardiner Sherman, better known as "Bar Harbor" has gone out for football. Mr. Sherman has played on Stetson's eleven before and is one of the best men Stetson ever had, playing right end.

Mr. Fairfax Haskins was a recent visitor to Stetson.

Rudolph Koestor, a last year's graduate from the Law Department, has returned from a trip in Michigan and will practice law in DeLand. His many friends welcome him back and wish him the best of success.

VESPERS

A large number were present at Vespers last Sunday to hear Dr. Hulley's address on the subject of "The Student and Religion." The text chosen for the talk was "Lord, I believe; help Thou mine unbelief." Dr. Hulley spoke of the students state of mind in regards to his religion, mentioning some of the difficulties which arise to separate him from his faith, and how these are, in most cases, ultimately overcome.

Most students, said Dr. Hulley, have, up to the time they enter college, accepted without question the religious teachings and doctrines which they have been taught by their elders. The college man, however, immersed in an atmosphere of thought and reason, begins to question the doctrines which he has accepted without understanding. That he should do this is right and natural, but it too often leads to scepticism. However, the student who is striving toward the right viewpoint of religion should not be blamed for failing to grasp the more complex matters of creed and doctrine.

When passing thru the dangers of doubt and scepticism the student should try hard to live the Christian life; constantly read his Bible; and stand by his faith. The college man who in this way puts up a hard fight against scepticism and unbelief will be sure to win out in the end.

PI BETA PHI SORORITY

Saturday afternoon Mrs. G. W. Fisher a patroness of Pi Beta Phi entertained with a tea at her home on Michigan avenue honoring the members and patronesses of Pi Beta Phi. Dainty refreshments were served and Mrs. Fisher presented a beautiful large chrysanthemum to each of the pledges again proving her capability as a hostess as on all other occasions.

The Tri Delta "rats" entertained the Pi Phi "rats" Wednesday evening at the Lexington. The room and tables were beautifully decorated, Pi Phi colors being used thruout. Jessie Schwingle acted as toastmistress. Mary Hulley, Bessie Gumm, June Elliott, and Margaret Woodall repounded admirably to her call. After the banquet, Miriam Lutz favored with a number of solo dances. The rest of the evening was spent in dancing. All declare it the best time ever.

but was not definitely decided upon. Following the report of Mr. Harris the following program was rendered:

Talk by Mr. Melton on "Great Men It Has Been My Pleasure to Hear Speak." His talk was very interesting and educational in the matters he presented before the society.

The debate of the evening followed Mr. Melton. The debate was, Resolved that Stetson should have a three year law course. The affirmative side presented by Mr. Smith and Mr. Katz and the negative by Messrs. Hazard and Bates.

The judges, Mr. Peterson, Mr. Hale and Mr. Caro, rendered their decision in favor of the negative by two to one vote.

Mr. Harris then gave a short talk on Current Events.

After the report of Mr. Pencke, the critic pro tem of the club, the society adjourned.

TRI-DELTA PARTY

Pleasant Affair.

The "kid" party given by the pledges of the Tri-Delta to the older members last Saturday evening in Room Two of Chaudoin was a huge success. The "rats" made most attractive "kiddies" with curls and huge hair bows.

A prize was offered to the one who said the nicest thing about the rats and Miss Sara Chase won the prize by a remarkable outburst of poetic genius but we decline to repeat the poem here.

The eats—oh yes, wonderful they were. Salad, tomato and Mayonnaise sandwiches, pickles in the shape of Deltas, hot chocolate and cake, and public thanks is hereby tendered to the donor of that lovely five pound box of candy.

Miss Ruth Stewart of the Tri-Delta Fraternity was called home on account of the illness of her mother, but it is hoped to have her back again in the spring term.

Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity announces the initiation of Mr. Rubert J. Longstreet of the Senior Law Class.

Prof. Brass of the Law Department spent the week-end out of town.

Montague Young spent the week end in Orlando visiting his mother.

PEGGY AT REVERE BEACH.

"Listen to the bumming of the turf against the snore," said Ma. "I just love to come here and commute with nature, and see her in all her varicose moose."
"You mean 'various moods,' don't you, Ma?" timidly suggested Peggy.

"Never you mind what I mean,"
said Ma. "I know what I mean and that's efficient. I have the soul of a poet and choose to express myself potentially. I should never have married. I should have devoted my life to artificial things. Look at those cute children plaguing in the sand."

"They're building castles," said
Ma. "See that extinguished looking man walking along with so much dignity?"

"Yes'm," said Peggy.

"That's Tom Jibblits, the Noodle Island statesman. There's a resterong. Let's go in and get a clam-ache."

"I'd much infer to have some esteemed clams," said Peggy.

They went in. Ma looked over her glasses at the menu.

"They are not to be complicated on their meanyou," she said.
Then she turned to the waitress
and said:

"I think I'll have some grabs."

"What kind?" asked the waitress.

"Soft-boiled," said Ma.

"With solid-dressing," added Peggy.

"And a pot of oblong tea," ordered Ma.

"No," protested Peggy, "I'd rather have a demijohn of coffee."

"You musn't drink coffee," said
Ma. "It's infurious to your di-gesture. The first thing you know you'll be a dyspepsin and have to give up solid foods and live on floocys."

"You mean druids, Ma," corrected Peggy.

"I knew a man once who had dyspepsin so bad," said Ma, "that he got ulsters in his stomach and they had to opulate on him."

"Did he recover from the occupation, Ma?" asked Peggy, anxiously.

"No," said Ma, sadly. "He perspired. I do wish that waitrust would hurry. This delay is very irrigating."

"Here she is now," said Peggy.
"Shall I swerve?"

"No," said Ma. "We'll just itch in and help ourselves. It's too hot to be pollute."—Boston

Ripper has been helping Hazard and Enrique Questa to learn English and Spanish. Hazard was given the sentence in Spanish, "Do you need some money?" Questa and Hazard are in the habit of practicing out on each other their abilities in each other's tongue.
Hazard goes into Enrique's room to try out his newly acquired Spanish and Enrique didn't catch the drift of the affair. He thot Hazard had acquired sudden wealth and was offering to give him a part thereof. When Hazard sprung the sentence in question, Enrique immediately took up the trend of the conversation in Spanish.
Whereupon Hazard tried to explain in English that it was only practice work. They had to end the discussion finally by applying to Prof. Ripper.
